RE: UPDATED TOPICAL INDEX FOR RESEARCH PUBLICATIONS

Take a few minutes to review this Index. If you would like information regarding a subscription to Research Department publications, or if you are a subscriber and desire an ID and password to access research publications on the Research Website or if you are a subscriber and would like to receive Research Department publications by email, please contact us at:

PH: (317) 580-8659 • FAX: (317) 580-8651 • Email: ks_smith@unitedactuarial.com

The purpose of this Index is to make it easy to locate information you may need from previous research publications by grouping the information under specific topics. All information related to the same topic is listed together in chronological order regardless type of the research publication in which it first appeared. Out-of-date publications have been omitted, including most publications issued before 1990. The main subjects used for grouping purposes are listed below. An asterisk (*) appears with any new report added after 1/1/10. The Topical Index begins on page 3. Some of the older issues are left in the Topical Index for historical research purposes. The reader is advised to check these and any other topics for newer developments since a particular newsletter publication.

For publications issued after December 2010, return to the Research Menu and search under each of the following headings: Research Memos, Benefit News Briefs, Special Bulletins and Client Bulletins. Reports are listed chronologically under each section beginning with the latest. Titles of Research Department Publications by Year can be accessed through the Resource Tab on the Research Menu.
