

SPECIAL BULLETIN

PBGC Announces Website Open for 2009 Premium Filing

The Pension Benefits Guarantee Corporation (PBGC) just announced that its website is open for 2009 Premium Filings. Premium filing due date information is located at: <http://www.pbgc.gov/practitioners/premium-filings/content/page1145.html>

My Plan Administration Account (My PAA), the PBGC's premium e-filing application, is now ready to accept premium filings for plan years beginning in 2009. Information (including FAQs, filing deadlines, and Demos) can be found on the Online premium filing \(My PAA\) page of the PBGC website which is located at: <http://www.pbgc.gov/practitioners/premium-filings/content/page13265.html>.

Anyone interested in more information about creating a comprehensive filing specifically for multiemployer plans may wish to view the online multiemployer comprehensive filing premium demo at posted on the PBGC website at: [For background information on the PBGC premiums rules and rates see:](http://www.pbgc.gov/videos/mypaa/CreateComprehensiveMultiemployerFiling/>CreateComprehensiveMultiemployerFiling.html.<div data-bbox=)

- Research Memo 2008-24 for information on the PBGC premium payment regulations.
- Benefit News Briefs 2008-64 for information on the 2009 Premium rates. The PBGC's 2009 flat premium rates are (1) $34.00 per participant for single-employer plans and (2) $9.00 per participant for multiemployer plans.

To keep up with premium and other news from the PBGC, interested persons can sign up for email alerts at the top of the "What's New for Practitioners" page at: <http://www.pbgc.gov/practitioners/whatsnew.html>

* * *